ISPPY WANTS COURT TO MANAGE KINLOCH

Proposition Is Made by Minority Stockholders in Suit Against Florissant Club.

JUDGE THINKS MATTER OVER.

Litigation at Clayton Is the Outgrowth of an Effort to Reorganize the County Track for Spring Racing Meet.

Whether he will run a race track, in addition to his other duties, is a question Judge John W. McElhinney of the Clayton Circuit Court will decide probably to-morrow. The proposition was presented to him in court yesterday. It came up in the injunction and receivit came up in the injunction and receivership proceedings of Joseph Sippy against the Kinioch Jockey Club, which has been reorganized under the name of the Florisant Valley Jockey Club. Sippy's attorneys made the proposition. They want the court to take charge of the track and run the lary of a receivership.

Sippy, Philemon Chew, Joseph A. Murphy and two expert accountants were witnesses in the court proceedings yesterday. The hearing consumed the entire day, and Judge McElhimey announced at its conclusion last night that he would take the matter under advisement.

CONSPIRACY IS CHARGED.

CONSPIRACY IS CHARGED.

In the trial yesterday it was charged that what is known as the Adler-Cella-Tilles combine in St. Louis had conspired to prevent the Kinloch race meeting and thereby create a menopoly in racing, both in the city and county.

Mr. Chew was the most interesting witness in the proceedings yesterday. He recited the history of the Kinloch track and isld of the difficulties it had encountered. The first year it was operated at a loss of $3.88. In 1501 the stockholders refused to put up any more money, and he, Ed Butler, Sr., Joseph D. Lucas and Thomas Connor operated it, personally, at a loss of $3.600 in seventeen days. This year, in return for fifteen days racing in April and fifteen cays in August, they promised the Westsen Jockey Club to fluidate the $50.000 in dilional in improvements.

To raise modey for the club two years ago he and Lucas issued their promissory mote, payable to Mary A. Kennedy, a stenographer, for $23.500. They then indersed the instrument and used it as collateral in the money market. To secure themselves for the risk they assumed, they as directors, voted to place a deed of trust on the club property in favor of themselves as individuals.

SIPPY CLAIMS IRREGULARITY.

SIPPY CLAIMS IRREGULARITY. SIPPY CLAIMS IRREGULARITY.

It was the attempt to foreclose this deed of trust that caused the institution of the injunction proceedings, as Sippy, a minority stockholder, claimed it was irregular.

Caew said that part of the capitalization of the Kinloch Club was issued in what is known as promotion stock to Robert Pate and Al Spink. Neither of the men ever had physical possession of the stock, as it was held by Lucas as trustee. Nevertheless, he said, Spink tried to sell his shares, amounting to $10,00. The witness said he finally bought them from him for $500. The plans, leases and options of the club were transferred as consideration for the promotion stock.

INSANE RICH MAN REFUSED A LANDING.

Him in Sanitarium Pending a Reling From Washington.

San Francisco. March 7.—John Ure Buchanan, a wealthy young Englishman, who arrived on the steamer Doris from Hong-Kong, was refused a landing by Commissioner of immigration North on account of being insane. He came from Hong-Kong as a cabin passenger, accompanied by a servant, who was really his keeper.

He had plenty of money, and obtained all the comforts and luxuries on the voyage. When refused a landing his friends obtained permission to take him to a private sanitarium at Livermore, where he will be kept until the department at Washington passes upon the case.

An effort will be made to permit him to pass through in transit, a bond being filed to insure his departure from the country. His destination is Liverpool. He has an uncle. George M. Ure, in this city.

Mr. Ure when seen stated that his nephew was an only son. His parents reside at Shanghal, China. They were unable to get proper medical treatment in China, and for that reason sent him away in the hope that he may be given treatment that may effect a cure. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

WESTERN CHAMPION MAY RACE HERMIS

WILL MEET AT SARATOGA.

Only Doubt Is Ability of Hermis to Fulfill Stake Engagements and Be Fit for Match Contest.

New York, March 7.—There is now no obstacle in the way of a match race between McChesney and Hermis, if Mr. Bell, owner of the Eastern champion 4-year-old, will consent to a meeting between the pair, either at Saratoga in August during the fall racing meeting or at either Sheepshead's Bay or Morris Park. Mr. Smathers is eager for the match. George Spear, the noted driver, who is the trainer of Mr. Smathers's trotting hotses, and in the full confidence of his employer, to-day had this to say: "Mr. Smathers is ready to enter McChesney at the proper time in a sweepstakes against Hermis on any Eastern track either in August at Saratoga or later at some other race course." "Will he make a good-sized side bet?" was asked. "Most certainly." said Mr. Spear with New York, March 7.-There is now no ob-other race course."

"Will he make a good-sized side bet?" was asked.

"Most certainly," said Mr. Spear, with emphasis, "for £20,000, or as much larger a sum as the Hermis people wish."

Nothing could be more explicit than this, so the McChesney end of the proposition is now resolved into the form of a challenge. Mr. Del's only hesitation in accepting the defi at once, his friends say, is based on the doubt whether Hermis will be able to fulfill his rich engagements in the big stakes and at the same time induige in a grueling match race. But as Hermis will have concluded the bulk of the work mapped out for him before fall, the matter resolves itself into a question of condition. If Hermis goes through his stake engagements without accident and can be sent to the post fit and sound against the Western horse, there will be no doubt whatever of Mr. Bell's willingness. He believes that Hermis is unbeatable in this country at weight for age, and he dearly loyes to back his beliefs and see his judgment vindicated. Those, however, who think that Mr. Bell should at once jump at the Smathers challenge will be disappointed. It would be unfair to his horse and to himself for Mr. Bell to make an ironclad agreement for a match race until the fit condition of the Eastern champion shall be assured. At the proper time and place, no doubt, the challenge on behalf of McChesney will be accepted, but until then the turf world must have patience, content with the assurance that nothings but an unavoidable accident will prevent the greatest horse race of the decade before the ensuing season comes to an end.

CONTEST IN SOCKER PENNANT RACE GROWS MORE INTERESTING.

Defeat of the Kerns Sunday Was Costly and They Are Now Tied With the Sportsmen-Decision on Protested Game Awaited to Determine Whether Three Clubs Are Tied for First Honors-Notes and Comment of the Players.

Two of the speediest recruits to association football this season.

With each Sunday's play competition for first honors in the Association football race grows closer. The defeat of the Kerns last Sunday by Jarrett's team caused a slump in the Kern's stock and that team is now tied for first place with the Sportsman.

If the officials of the league decide that the C. B. C.'s are entitled to a protested game with the Jarrett team, the C. B. C.'s will also be tied for first place, but an official decision against the C. B. C.'s will cause that team to remain in second place.

Phil Cavanaugh, leader of the Kerns, is the best goal-getter in the league this season. Every Sunday the Buttnertown boy pastes one or two through, and some Sunday's he gets away with four or five goals without the assistance of any of his teammates.

Jimmy Daly, the C. B. C.'s star forward, who was injured two weeks ago in a game, is in fairly good condition at present and will probably line up with his teammates this afternoon. Since Daly's injury, the collegians have been unable to do anything startling, and unless he gets in the game shortly the C. B. C.'s will have little chance to foat the pennant this season.

Although Tom Finnegan's team has been getting theirs with a regularity of late, the doughty Captain is still of the opinion that Owing to the wet condition of the local foot-ball grounds, the management of the association has decided to call off all games scheduled for this afternoon. The campus grounds are very muddy, making it impossible for the players to run at any great speed, while the grounds at Sportsman's Park are covered with six or more inches of water. The schedule will be carried out later, the game merely being postpened. Mound City Team Formed.

Law Against Public Sparring Exhibitions, Says the Judge.

Beston, March 7.—The question of what constitutes the difference between a public and a private sparring exhibition was argued to-day in connection with a test case in the East Boston Court, and, while the court stated that without doubt the practice of certain clubs in holding sparring exhibitions was an attempt to evade the law, the court was forced, in the absence of damaging evidence, to discharge the defendants. The complaint was against the club manager, referce and members who assisted in the recent George Garden-Al Weinig flight, the boxers also being named, but failing to appear.
